CHELSEA GALLO

Conductor Chelsea Gallo has been labeled a "rising star" within the conducting world, being praised for her ability to "...lead the orchestra with grace and fiery command" (Schubring). In addition to her responsibilities on the conducting staff for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, Chelsea has numerous posts and regularly assists some of the world's most prominent conductors and musicians, including leading conductors such as Leonard Slatkin, James Gaffigan, and Karina Canellakis.

An advocate of new music, Chelsea conducted in Operation Opera, a festival for newly composed operas. During her time at Michigan, she gave the Michigan premiere of Esa-Pekka Salonen's piece "Helix" and gave the American premiere of Michael Gordon's Bassoon Concerto. Further, she directed Hartford Opera's 2017 production of Who Married Star Husbands by Shuying Li.
