

THE MISSOURI SYMPHONY

MISSOURI SYMPHONY CONSERVATORY ENSEMBLES AND COURSES

MUSICAL SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

Serves as an introductory level class where students will learn about basics of Music Theory, History, plus a great array of fun activities to make music accessible to everyone. Mary Emmons is the instructor of this class.

PERCUSSION ENSEMBLE

The percussion ensemble focuses on music created for smaller and larger percussion groups, where students get the chance to perform music from all over the world specifically written for just percussion, guided by the percussion conductor, Olivia Sletteland.

PRELUDE STRINGS

Prelude Strings is the beginner level group for all string players who want to become part of an orchestra, and acquire the basic skills and knowledge of how to play together, that will later on help them succeed with the more advance orchestras, as well as enjoying performing music with people their level, guided by our wonderful Prelude String conductor, Evan Wilde.

MISSOURI YOUTH SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

One of the only full youth orchestras in Mid-Missouri, the MYS serves as the introduction for intermediate students to how a full orchestra works. With Strings, Winds, Brass, and Percussion, this orchestra performs the same repertoire one would hear in a concert hall. Students who are part of MYS will learn discipline, teamwork, leadership, and develop a sense of musicality and ownership. This orchestra is conducted by our great Missouri Youth Symphony Conductor, Briana Frieda.
